Beautiful Day

I'm going to take this little secret
Doors are open for something new
I am here, here on my own

I can see the dawn of a beautiful day

I go on to fix all broken pieces
Running from chaos, just one step ahead
Day lights up and I come to my senses

I can see the dawn of a beautiful day

I can feel the light
How it gets me higher
With this burning inside
To fulfill my desire
This is now, this is me
It comes through my head vividly
While I watch the sun rising of that beautiful day

I look back but don't waste a moment
To move on with nothing to lose
I am here, to come alive

I can see the dawn of a beautiful day

How it gets me higher
With this burning inside
To fulfill my desire
I can feel the light
How it gets me higher
With this burning inside
To fulfill my desire
This is now, this is me
It comes through my head vividly

Plastic Emotions

Revolution of sin soothed by white powder
Behind black coloured eyes, weakness cries louder
A sense of shame, the piercing sting of a painful scar
Lost in the life of a lonesome star

Visions and dreams solved in disillusion
Hypnotizing brains caused confusion
All of the returning thoughts drowned in Champagne
Our minds full of a beating sound of pain

Tired eyes and sleepless nights
We feed on plastic emotions

Synthetic life featured by cool romance
A new style of addiction, due to circumstance
We're wannabe rebels and step over the traces Ignoring that we'll become one of these dead and frozen faces

Tired eyes and sleepless nights
We feed on plastic emotions

You

Cold water runs down my face, while I watch you go
One piece of you that I kept inside, let my heart glow

You

Cold water runs down my face, while I let you go
Left all alone I realize that I need you so
I'm restless inside
That cold water still runs down, runs down, run run run...

You

Maybe someday I'll be with you again
For now, I'm waiting. I sing for you

You

Why? I love you so!

Love Or Fear

Snow is falling down
Slowly onto my hand
Peace in my mind
As I blow it away

Love or fear
You're still near, when you're gone
Hold on to hope your dreams carry you to a place you belong
Oh, I can hear them whispering your name

Tears are falling down
Silently onto my hand
Reassuring memories
As I wipe them away

Love or fear
You're still near, when you're gone
Hold on to hope your dreams carry you to a place you belong
Oh, I can hear them whispering your name

Snow is falling down
Slowly onto your hand
